Library Services

Distance Learning

Students enrolled only in web-based courses may obtain electronic access to the Library’s resources, including databases and e-books. If you are a distance student and are unable to come to campus to get a picture taken for your OneCard or ID card, please see the section on “Distance Learner Applications” here.